The Artist:

After studies at the school of Beaux Arts, and at the school Boule, Eve worked in the decoration industry. But after a serious work accident and during her long convalescence, she discovered the Marseilles embroidery. She learned this new technique from Provence, which became a true passion. Now, as a member of the “Métiers d’Art d’Aquitaine” and the “Métiers d’Art de France”, Eve exhibits and lectures Marseilles embroidery at home and elsewhere.

Wednesday 3rd of June (all day)

Theme: Boutis de Provence (Marseilles embroidery)

Wednesday all day will be for beginners and intermediate students

We will learn the traditional techniques of Marseilles embroidery, by making a selected and symbolic work in which we will discover drawing, little dots and the padding around traditional motifs.

A kit will be available for people who do not have special Boutis equipment.
The kit includes: 1 ball of cotton Boutis, 1 cotton thread, white cotton Batiste de Provence, drawings and a vermicelli board at a price of € 22.00.

Level: all
